

The first film of the 2013 series "A Camera of Her Own: Women Filmmakers Today"

A Moment in Her Story

A documentary film by Catherine Russo

Thursday, January 31, 7 p.m.
Tisch Library, Room 304

Screening to be followed by a discussion with Catherine Russo and Professor Ronna Johnson.

A Moment in Her Story:
Stories from the Boston Women's Movement

"A Moment in Her Story" is an honest, complex exploration of some of the major challenges faced by those active in the Second Wave women's movement of the late 60s and early 70s. With humor and sensitivity, Russo brings that rare lens to the conflicts experienced by women coming from different race and class backgrounds. Younger feminists will learn much from these inspiring stories of earlier community activists who worked together to push for greater justice and equality for women."

— Judy Norsigian, Executive Director, Our Bodies Ourselves, Cambridge, MA

Cosponsored by the Communications and Media Studies Program, Women's Studies, and the Department of Drama and Dance